FORMAT

LEARN TO FLY

- Swiss with triple elimination – Last chance
- Tournament is run with Drawboss software. During swiss players with the same record are paired, if possible. Bye is awarded to a player with the worst record. Only one bye per player until all remaining players have got a bye. Players can only face each other once, if possible. Next round will be drawn when all of the matches of the current round have been finished.
- Player is eliminated after 3 losses.
- When a player is eliminated he/she will fall to Last chance-tournament, played on Sunday. However players who cash in main tournament don't go to Last chance.
- It's difficult to estimate the number of rounds in the tournament, but the main final will be played on Sunday in any case.
- Clock option: 3 min / point + 15 seconds delay (clocks are recommended)
